At Dell Financial Services, our commitment to providing you, our valued customers, with impeccable service and support is something we take very seriously. To that end, we would like to further explain the types of information we present to make it easier for you understand and read your monthly statement.

1. This is the Lease Contract Summary section, here you will find a quick overview of the most important info for your account:

   1a. This is your Loan account number.

   1b. This is the total of payment and credits that were applied to the loan account since the last statement.

   1c. This is the due date for the next scheduled payment.

   1d. This is the current charges for the contract this will be shown in more detail in "Summary of Current Charges"

   1e. This is the past due amount, if any.

   1f. The is the total due, which will be made up of current charges and past due.

   1g. This is the current loan balance on the loan account, it is not a payoff amount. If you wish to payoff the loan, you will need to contact DFS Customer Service at 1-877-663-3355.

2. In this space, you will see more detail about the current charges from the account summary above. This section will always total up to the amount of current charges you need to pay.

3. This is the Remittance Slip, that you will need to detach and return with your check if you are paying by mail. It also has a lot of the same information that you saw above.

As always, you can find definitions and explanations for terms you don't understand on the back of your statement or by contacting us using the information provided on your statement.
